

November 8, 2023

Fire Accident at Nagoya Plant (1st Report)

Nissan Chemical Corporation is afraid to announce that a fire accident occurred at our Nagoya Plant (7, Tsukiji-cho, Minato-ku, Nagoya Prefecture) which manufactures chemical products, around 4:30 p.m. on November 6th.

We deeply apologize for the great inconvenience and concern caused to the the neighbors and all those involved. The situation has become clear as of 9:00 a.m. on November 7th, as follows.

1. Location of the occurrence

Our sulfuric acid manufacturing facility in the Nagoya Plant

2. Time of occurrence

Date of occurrence: Around 4:30 p.m. on Monday, November 6th, in an electrostatic precipitator at a sulfuric acid manufacturing facility caught fire.

Fire extinguishment time: Around 6:07 p.m. on the same day, a public firefighter confirmed the fire extinguishment.

3. Damage status

Human damage: None

Property Damage: Part of the electrostatic precipitator was burn out. Detailed investigation underway.

4. Environmental Impact

Soot was temporarily scattered outside the factory premises. No impact on drainage, etc. has been confirmed.

5. Neighborhood impact

No major impact.

6. Cause and countermeasure

The cause is unknown. As soon as the cause is discovered, we will take appropriate measures under the guidance of the firefighting authorities.

Contact information for inquiries on the above
Nissan Chemical Corporation Corporate Planning Department Planning Office, Public Relations Group E-mail : pr_cpd@nissanchem.co.jp